

Ain't Nobody Change the World Like a Librarian
(Librarian Rap Song)
Kirby Heyborne

Friends and Romans, lend me an ear
No need to be fearin' the librarian's here!
I got MAD SKILLS
I be workin' all day
Teaching, loving, sweating putting your books away!

I support, inform and teach you right
You can achieve the possibilities you see in your mind
It's my life, fool!
To be a counselor, friend
Ain't nobody change the world like a librarian!

Hey! Ho! Here we go!
Throw your hands in the air when you walk through the door!
Say it loud and proud with some help from yo friends:
Ain't nobody change the world like a librarian!

I'm an advocate; I make the chilluns feel safe
I give them all encouragement sos they can relate
Got Dr. Seuss, Mark Twain, Daniel Kraus on my mind
Cause I change the world one book at a time!

Hey! Ho! Here we go!
Throw your hands in the air when you walk through the door!
Say it loud and proud with some help from yo friends:
Ain't nobody change the world like a librarian!

Dewey Decimal Catalog
Where does it go?
Dewey Decimal Catalog
What?
Do the Dewey Decimal Catalog
Where does it go?
Dewey Decimal Catalog

Hey! Ho! Here we go!
Throw your hands in the air when you walk through the door!
Say it loud and proud with some help from yo friends:
Ain't nobody change the world like a librarian!
